

Activity Itinerary

Day Day 1 :- Driving from Manali to Jobra and Trekking from Jobra to Chika: A Mesmerizing Walk through Lush Green Forests

Description: -

- Start the day with a delicious breakfast before driving from Manali to Jobra, the base camp for the trek
- The scenic drive takes approximately two hours and offers stunning views of the surrounding landscape and winding roads
- Upon arrival at Jobra, you will be warmly welcomed and given a briefing about the journey to Chika
- The trek to Chika is a distance of 2 km and takes approximately three hours to complete
- The trail is surrounded by lush greenery, with the Himalayan mountains providing a stunning backdrop
- The trek is relatively easy and serves as a great introduction to the rest of the journey
- Along the way, you will witness the beautiful River Rani flowing through the meadows, with friendly cattle and lambs dotting the landscape
- You will set up camp for the night by the river, providing a tranquil and scenic setting for a restful night's sleep

Day Day 2 :- Chika campsite to Balu ka Ghera Campsite

Description: -

- Wake up to beautiful daylight and have breakfast
- Head towards Balu ka Ghera, a journey of 5-6 hours
- Enjoy the beauty of vibrant rhododendron trees, silverware birch, and other alpine foliage
- Encounter an arch of the Himalayas known as The White Range and Dauladhar peaks standing tall
- Stop at a river waterfall on the left wing to refill water supplies
- Arrive at Balu Ka Ghera, a patch of flat mountain-land dotted with snow
- Enjoy hot lunch and relax in the scenic beauty
- Dinner is served, and camp is set up for the night

Day Day 3 :- Balu ka Gera to Siagoru Trek via Hampta Pass | Breathtaking Views of Snow-Covered Mountains

Description: -

- Cross Hampta Pass to reach Siagoru for an audacious day
- The terrain starts as meadow-like and green but gradually becomes rocky and barren
- Uphill journey is steep and grueling with two ridges separated by a leveled plateau region to climb
- Final twenty to thirty minutes require tolerance and determination
- Sense of euphoria upon reaching the top, having surmounted a delicate portion of the journey
- Explore Hampta village and enjoy panoramic view of Spiti and Lahaul valley below
- Have hot lunch to reenergize for descent to scenic village of Siagoru
- Journey through Siagoru is fairly easy once steep regions are cleared
- After eight hours of touring, rest and reflect on the trip with fellow comers

Day Day 4 : Siagoru to Chatru, Driving to Chandra Tal, and Returning to Chatru – Confluence of Three Passes

Description: -

- Start descent from Siagoru to Chhatru after breakfast
- Journey takes around 2-3 hours to complete and is fairly easy
- Pass through Hampta Valley, offering beautiful views of Pir Panjal range of the Himalayas
- Chhatru is a sparsely populated place located at an altitude of 100 bases
- Chhatru is the capstone of three important adventure points in Himachal - Hampta Pass, Spiti, and Rohtang Pass
- After lunch, take a 30 km drive to reach Chandratal Lake
- Chandratal Lake is a scenic gem of Himachal Pradesh, named after its crescent moon shape
- Beautiful sight with crystal clear water reflecting influential Himalayas
- Indulge in activities like swimming, taking a walk around the lake, or enjoying the beautiful view
- Spend the night camping near the lake.

Day Day 5:- Chatru - Atal Tunnel - Manali

Description: -

- Wake up to the serene sounds of the moon-shaped lake, as your Hampta Pass trekking adventure comes to an end.
- Traverse through the famous Atal Tunnel, the longest single-tube highway tunnel above 10,000 feet.
- Arrive at Manali and disperse for your onward journey, carrying a bag full of cherished memories
